Roblox is an online game platform and game creation system developed by Roblox Corporation that allows users to program games and play games created by other users. Created by David Baszucki and Erik Cassel in 2004 and released in 2006, the platform hosts user-created games of multiple genres coded in the programming language Lua. For most of Roblox's history, it was relatively small, both as a platform and a company. Roblox began to grow rapidly in the second half of the 2010s, and this growth has been accelerated by the COVID-19 pandemic. Roblox is free to play, with in-game purchases available through a virtual currency called Robux. As of August 2020, Roblox had over 164 million monthly active users, including more than half of all American children under 16. Although Roblox has received generally positive reviews from critics, it has faced criticism for its moderation, microtransactions, and exploitative practices directed toward children. Today I will be writing about Roblox because I have been playing it a lot for the past month and because you are probably supposed to be writing in your A2 (Open) assignments, so don't read the next paragraph. Okay. So I'm not gonna lie, when I was in 9th grade, I was convinced that Roblox was an amazing place. I was like, "I was going to have a house at Roblox where I would play games, and I would make my own games!" Then, I went to 11th grade, and I guess I wasn't as fulfilled. Roblox wasn't what I thought it would be. It wasn't fun. But I still wanted to play it, because I felt like there had to be something good about it. That is why I started watching All the best games of ROBLOX 2019, and here is what I said about it: 10 best games of Roblox Roblox is an online game platform and game creation system developed by Roblox Corporation that allows users to program games and play games created by other users. How someone has a K9 unit here in Portland, OR. Wednesday, October 9, 2012 Thursday Meeting Notes Big news this week! After 6 months of being sick and at death's door, the shelter and vets threw me another curve ball and I now have to take 5 more medications. Its actually a really good thing, I got my medications scheduled for K-9-sitter Rake - his medication days are just after mine but I get two days of the day on the medication and he only gets one. As for the other medications, I have them timed so if I take my meds now, then during the night the dogs get enough doses in between to make sure they never get too drugged out to work the next day. I have a bit of a choker around him. I didn't get the update on his conditioning right before I left. He was excited to get to go out to the training grounds for day 1 of being an Officer in Charge! Our deputy gets a reprieve from training so he will still be training the deputy in charge of K9-sitting. Also, apparently two people have been arrested in a rash of terroristic threats made on Facebook. The first person made four threats and reported them. In one of them he stated a person wanted to set off pipe bombs at a funeral. The report made the FB search folks check the suspect's friend list who had an FB album with multiple photos of handguns and of a sniper rifle with a scope attached, a device to build a bomb, and a picture of a
